

Festival Information

May 3-5, 2019 - Great Bend, KS

The Kansas Wetlands Education Center, The Nature Conservancy, Kansas Wildlife Parks & Tourism, City of Great Bend, FHSU College of STM, and The Kansas Birding Festival, Inc., invite you to the 2019 Wings & Wetlands Festival in Great Bend, KS! Spend two days birding Cheyenne Bottoms, Quivira NWR, and other central Kansas birding hotspots; along with workshops, meals, and socials.

Frequently Asked Questions

How do I register? Online registration is preferred at nature.org/wingsandwetlands. Mail-in registration forms are also available. Early registration deadline is April 5, 2019. Late registrations are $50 higher per registration. For questions, call 877-243-9268.

Where is the Festival Site? The festival is stationed at Great Bend, KS; the festival headquarters is at Stoneridge Country Club.

What experience level is the festival geared toward? The festival is targeted at beginner and intermediate bird identification; however, all birding levels are welcome.. We will attempt to pair up participants appropriately during fieldtrips.

What will we see? The festival occurs at the typical peak of shorebird & waterfowl migration; wetland species are the target birds. 150-180 species of birds are documented during most festivals. Bird lists of past festivals can be found at kansasbirdingfestival.com

What's included in my registration fee? Regular registration includes 3 guided birding fieldtrips, 2 suppers, 1 breakfast, shorebird ID workshop, and Sat. evening program. An evening/night birding tour and Greater Prairie Chicken lek tour are extra tours with an extra fee. Registration does not include lodging.

How do the field trips work? Expert birding guides will lead participants in 12 and 15 passenger vans. Field trips will leave from the festival headquarters and will go to Cheyenne Bottoms, Quivira NWR, and other area birding hotspots, depending on the guide and participant desires. Most birding will be done from vehicles; however, proper outdoor clothing and shoes should be worn.

Where do I stay? Participants are responsible for their own lodging arrangements. Several hotels in Great Bend have special rates for festival participants. To receive these special rates, you must call in reservations and mention the Wings & Wetlands Festival. For more information on hotel accommodations call 620-792-2750 or check visitgreatbend.com.
